2.6. Davis Technical College Title IX – Sexual Harassment and Discrimination Policy

3. Definitions

3.1. Administrative Discipline - Formal corrective and/or disciplinary action taken against a student by a member of the College staff.

3.2. Grievance - Any reported incident that occurred while the student was enrolled at Davis Tech where the incident is the subject of a complaint involving a College student, a faculty member, other College staff, guests visiting the College, or other students. Such incidents must be a violation of College policies and procedures. Incidents or complaints reported may include sexual harassment, racial discrimination, or other types of allegations or grievance issues. Reliable documentation and/or testimony that allow a fair review of the complaint are essential components of the grievance process.

3.3. Due Process - Due process refers to the right to be heard which shall be provided to all of the parties associated with a student grievance. Due process includes the right of notification of statements or charges made and reasonable opportunities to respond in a timely manner prior to disciplinary action taken by the College. Students should be informed of standards and regulations regarding student conduct and performance standards. Resolutions and disciplinary actions, which are outcomes of a complaint, shall be clearly explained and fairly administered.

3.4. Student - The College recognizes student status as a student engaged in an active program of study.

3.5. Secondary Student - Student who meets the following criteria during the fiscal year in which they are enrolled: Is currently enrolled in grades 7-12 in a Utah public or private school; Is not more than 17 years old on or before September 1, or is documented as a retained senior, or has been enrolled in less than grade 12 during the previous year and is no more than 19 years old on or before September 1; Has not previously earned a high school diploma, certificate of high school completion, adult education secondary diploma or a high school equivalency diploma (GED).
3.6. Professional Misconduct – The violation of professional or ethical standards for the profession for which a student is preparing as adopted or recognized as authoritative by the relevant program. This also include specific misconduct that demonstrates the student’s unfitness for the profession.

3.7. Academic Integrity - Integrity and ethical behavior in all academic work including honesty in all class work, and ethical conduct in all labs and clinical assignments.

3.8. Ombudsman – Designated impartial Davis Technical College official who provides confidential and informal or formal assistance to students on a variety of issues or concerns.

3.9. Sanction – An imposed penalty for a violation of policy

4. Policy

4.1. The College acknowledges certain rights and privileges that students should receive including:

4.1.1. A climate conducive to learning.

4.1.2. Reasonable notice of attendance, performance and completion standards and expectations.

4.1.3. The right to due process in any proceeding involving the possibility of administrative discipline. This includes the right to be heard and the right to a decision and review by impartial persons.

4.1.4. The right to be free from illegal bias, prejudice, discrimination or any form of harassment.

4.1.5. The right to privacy and confidentiality of student and academic records.

4.1.6. The right to reasonable access to facilities, programs and information.

4.2. Student Responsibilities

4.2.1. By registering as a student of the College, the student agrees to maintain College standards for student conduct. Subject to the code will be any conduct that adversely impacts the business of the College, including online and community relationships. Conduct proceedings may be instigated for off-campus behaviors if such behaviors impact the business of the institution.

4.2.3.19.6. Accessing private, protected, or controlled records or files regardless of the electronic format without management authorization;
4.2.3.19.7. Divulging or making known to others passwords to College systems;

4.2.3.19.8. Distributing offensive, disparaging, or harassing statements, through email or social media, including those that may incite violence or that are based on race, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, disability, political beliefs, or religious beliefs;

4.2.3.19.9. Knowingly or recklessly spreading computer viruses, including acting in a way that effectively opens file types known to spread computer viruses, particularly from unknown sources or from sources from which the file would not be reasonably expected to be connected.

4.3 Secondary student violations that impact program participation may be reported to the high school administration at the discretion of the Director of Student Services or designee.

5. Procedures for Violations of Behavioral Code of Conduct

5.1. With exception of academic integrity violations, which may be resolved in the classroom at the instructor’s discretion, violations of the Code of Conduct will be reported in writing to the Director of Student Services (or designee).

5.1.5. If the complaint or violation is related to Title IX, it should be reported to the Title IX Coordinator and the process outlined in Davis Technical College’s Title IX – Sexual Harassment and Discrimination Policy.

5.2. If upon review of the reported incident, the Director (or designee) believes a violation to have occurred, they will convene a meeting with the student in which the student can review the allegations, respond, and ask questions about this policy and associated processes.

5.2.1. If the student accepts responsibility for the behavior, the Director of Student Services (or designee) may assign sanctions.

5.2.2. Students who do not accept responsibility will be referred to a behavioral review panel for adjudication

5.2.3. Prior to the first meeting of a behavioral review panel, the Director of Student Services (or designee) will conduct a thorough investigation and gather evidence for the panel to consider.

5.2.4. The Campus Ombudsperson will schedule a date and time for the behavioral review which will consist of the Director of Student Services, two additional Directors who are outside the program(s) involved in the alleged misconduct, and a student advocate assigned by Student Services.

5.2.4.1. Students who are involved in the disciplinary proceedings – either as a complainant, a witness, or the respondent – will be notified of the date, time and location of the hearing.

5.2.4.2. If any of the student participants decline to attend the behavioral review, the panel may proceed if the majority of the panel members agree to proceed.

5.2.4.3. In compliance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) the behavioral review is closed to the public.

5.2.4.4. Students may bring person(s) of their choosing to act as support. Such individuals may offer advice to students, but my not act as their representatives nor speak on the student’s behalf.

5.2.5. Notes will be taken and preserved for all behavioral reviews.

5.2.6. The Director of Student Services (or designee) will provide written documentation to the panel including the results of the investigation, relevant policies, and any other evidence the Director considers relevant.
5.2.6.1. Any student involved in the behavioral review may also provide written documentation they consider relevant.

5.2.7. The Ombudsperson will be responsible for ensuring the behavioral review is fairly conducted, that all parties have an opportunity to present their case, and that student’s rights to due process are preserved.

5.2.7.1. College representatives on the behavioral review panel have the right to ask questions of anyone involved. Students do not have the right to cross-examine other students or participants in the behavioral review.

5.2.7.2. When the behavioral review panel is satisfied that all participants have had the opportunity to present their perspective, the participants will be dismissed so that the panel can deliberate.

5.2.8. The panel may assign responsibility to one or more students and determine appropriate sanctions.

5.2.8.1. Sanctions should be educational and development wherever possible and may include (but are not limited to) written warnings, educational experiences such as writing papers to demonstrate learning, service to the College community, suspension, or dismissal.

5.2.8.2. Sanctions will be communicated verbally to the student receiving the sanction by the behavioral review panel and in writing by a representative of Student Services.

5.2.8.3. Record of the sanctions will be kept in the students’ files.

5.2.8.4. The details of sanctions should be shared only with those directly involved.

5.2.9. In the event that a student does not agree with the findings of the behavioral review and/or the sanctions, they may appeal the decision by following the Student Grievance Policy and Procedures.

6. Procedures for Academic Integrity Violations

6.2. Academic integrity violations include all forms of academic dishonesty, including, but not limited to the following

6.2.1. Cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, and plagiarism;

6.2.2. Submitting an item of academic work that has previously been submitted or simultaneously submitted without fair citation of the original work or authorization by the faculty member supervising the work.

6.3. Violations of academic integrity shall be reported to the program director

6.4. If upon review of the reported incident, the program director believes a violation to have occurred, they will convene a meeting with the student in which the student can review the allegations, respond, and ask questions about this policy and associated processes.

6.4.1. If the student accepts responsibility for the behavior, the program director (or designee) may assign sanctions.

6.4.2. Students who do not accept responsibility will be referred to an academic integrity review panel for adjudication.
6.4.3. Prior to the first meeting of a behavioral review panel, the program director (or designee) will conduct a thorough investigation and gather evidence for the panel to consider.

6.4.4. The Campus Ombudsperson will schedule a date and time for the behavioral review which will consist of the program director, the Director of Student Services and one additional director who are outside the program(s) involved in the alleged misconduct, and a student advocate assigned by Student Services.

6.4.4.1. Students who are involved in the disciplinary proceedings – either as a complainant, a witness, or the respondent – will be notified of the date, time and location of the hearing.

6.4.4.2. If any of the student participants decline to attend the review, the panel may proceed if the majority of the panel members agree to proceed.

6.4.4.3. In compliance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) the behavioral review is closed to the public.

6.4.4.4. Students may bring person(s) of their choosing to act as support. Such individuals may offer advice to students, but my not act as their representatives nor speak on the student’s behalf.

6.4.5. Notes will be taken and preserved for all behavioral reviews.

6.4.5.1. The program director (or designee) will provide written documentation to the panel including the results of the investigation, relevant policies, and any other evidence the director considers relevant.

6.4.5.2. Any student involved in the behavioral review may also provide written documentation they consider relevant.

6.4.6. The Ombudsperson will be responsible for ensuring the behavioral review is fairly conducted, that all parties have an opportunity to present their case, and that student’s rights to due process are preserved.

6.4.6.1. College representatives on the review panel have the right to ask questions of anyone involved. Students do not have the right to cross-examine other students or participants in the behavioral review.

6.4.6.2. When the review panel is satisfied that all participants have had the opportunity to present their perspective, the participants will be dismissed so that the panel can deliberate.

6.4.7. The panel may assign responsibility to one or more students and determine appropriate sanctions.

6.4.7.1. Sanctions should be educational and development wherever possible and may include (but are not limited to) written warnings, educational experiences such as writing papers to demonstrate learning, service to the College community, suspension, or dismissal.

6.4.7.2. Sanctions will be communicated verbally to the student receiving the sanction by the behavioral review panel and in writing by a representative of the academic program area.

6.4.7.3. Record of the sanctions will be kept in the students’ files.

6.4.7.4. The details of sanctions should be shared only with those directly involved.

6.4.8. In the event that a student does not agree with the findings of the behavioral review and/or the sanctions, they may appeal the decision by following the Student Grievance Policy and Procedures.
