1. Purpose

   1.1. This policy is established in compliance with federal regulations to promote institutional integrity in the administration of federal financial aid programs. Specifically, this policy addresses the institutional requirement to resolve any questions of Selective Service registration on the part of a student in the application for federal aid.

3. Definitions

   3.1. Comment Code (C Code): Flag issued by the Department of Education on the ISIR notifying financial aid administrators of potential issues that will effect a student’s eligibility for aid.

   3.2. Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA): The application by which the US Department of Education determines a student’s eligibility for federal financial aid.

   3.1. Institutional Student Information Record (ISIR): The electronically produced report used by the Department of Education to report a student’s eligibility to the school.

4. Policy

   4.1. Effective June 11, 2021, beginning with the 2021-2022 FAFSA, students are no longer required to register with the selective service to be eligible for federal aid. For the 2021-2022 and 2022-2023 the comment codes (c-codes) are still flagged on the ISIR, however schools are not required to resolve these c-codes.

5. Procedure

   5.1. Students will not be required to provide any documents, nor will documentation be requested from the students that have the selective service c-codes.

6. Approvals and Notes
